Dear Parent/Carer

As I am writing this letter, we have not received confirmation of which parents are 'key workers' under the government's announcement last night and who would be able to send their child/children to school. Some occupations were mentioned directly during the Prime Minister's speech and are very obvious whilst other jobs are very important but were not mentioned directly. Other factors were also mentioned such as children with Educational Health Care Plans and families who are working with social services. To help us plan as effectively as possible, I would be grateful if all parents could complete the questions below.

Name of pupil (s)

Do you believe you are a key worker and if so what is your occupation?

Does your child have an Educational Health Care Plan or is working with social services?

If eligible, would you be sending your child/children to school?

What is the best contact number to use in the foreseeable future should we need to send your child home.
