

Joining Words and Clauses using and

A Useful Little Word

When we speak and write we use words to join together our language.

What useful little word do you think we could use to join together the words in the answers to these questions?

Who is coming to the party?

James. Mia.

What are we going to eat?

Jelly. Ice cream.

What games will we play?

Pass the parcel. Musical statues.

and

We can use and to join together the words.

Who is coming to the party?
James and Mia.

What are we going to eat?
Jelly and ice cream.

What games will we play?
Pass the parcel and musical statues.

Use and to answer this question:

What would you like for your birthday?

_____ and _____ .

Joining Sentences

We can also use and to join two sentences or parts of sentences together.

Ali danced. He had fun.

Ali danced and he had fun.

The next word doesn't need to start with a capital letter.

Joining Sentences

Can you use and to join together these sentences?

Becky sat at the table. She ate the party food.

Granny brought some cupcakes. Everyone loved them.

The children sat in a circle. They played pass the parcel.

Remember the next word after and doesn't need to start with a capital letter.

Joining Sentences

Can you use and to join together these sentences?

Becky sat at the table. She ate the party food.

Becky sat at the table and she ate the party food.

Granny brought some cupcakes. Everyone loved them.

Granny brought some cupcakes and everyone loved them.

The children sat in a circle. They played pass the parcel.

The children sat in a circle and they played pass the parcel.

Remember the next word after and doesn't need to start with a capital letter.

Did you remember that the next word after and doesn't need to start with a capital letter?

Joining Using and

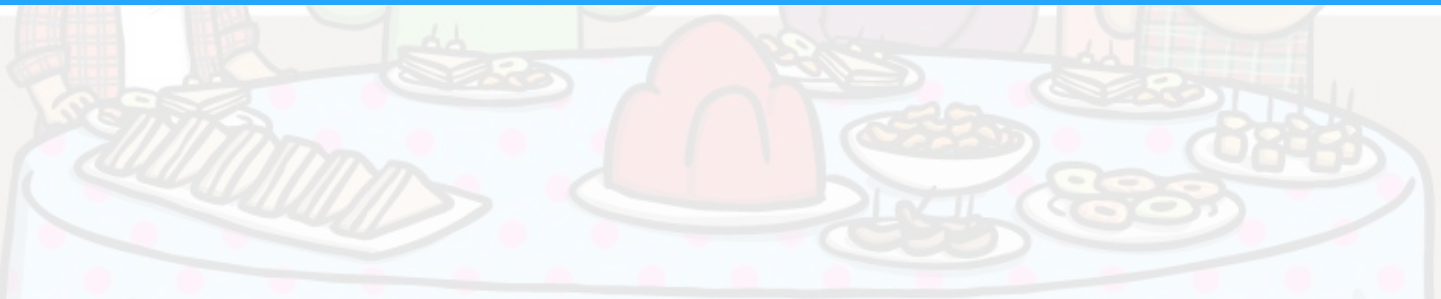

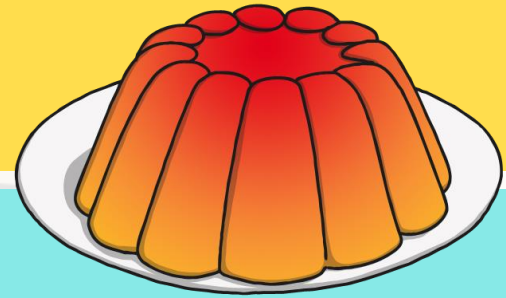

Remember:

We can use and to join words like this:
Fun and games.

We can use and to join sentences or parts of sentences and make one longer sentence.

Fred ate too much jelly. He was sick on the carpet.

Fred ate too much jelly and he was sick on the carpet.

Activity 1

Match the cards and then write the full sentences in your book using and to join them.

Party Fun

I can join words and parts of sentences using and.

1. First, cut out the cards. Match each card to another to make whole sentences. Stick the cards onto your large sheet of paper and write and in between to join the cards. Check that your sentences make sense.

Theo was tired.

Jane wore her new dress

Millie went to the party.

We ate sandwiches

Start the music

Tom

a ribbon in her hair.

we can play pass the parcel.

cake for lunch.

Theo had blue balloons

party poppers.

The party finished late

Bonus - Activity 2

You are going to work on your own to complete the Party Time Activity Sheet.

Party Time

I can join words and parts of a sentence using and.

I can use and to write a longer sentence of my own.

1. Theo is having a party. Draw lines to make sentences using and. The first one has been done for you. Check that your sentences make sense.

At my party we will...

drink juice

and dance to music.

eat cake

and fizzy pop.

sing songs

and pass the parcel.

play musical bumps

and sweets.

2. Now write out the sentences you have made about Theo's party. Use and to join the two parts. Check that your sentences make sense.

- a) At Theo's party we will _____ and _____.
- b) At Theo's party we will _____.
- c) At Theo's party we will _____.
- d) At Theo's party we will _____.

Challenge:

3. Write your own sentence about Theo's party using and to join your ideas.

