

Viking Crimes and Punishments

Name of Viking	Crime/Charge	Punishment given by the lawspeaker
Magga	Witchcraft	Magga should be tied up and thrown into a lake. If she is guilty then she will float and should then be tied to a stake and burnt. If she drowns then she is innocent (although she will be dead!) If proven innocent, then the accuser's will need to apologise to her family.
	Killing someone and announcing it
		A fine must be paid in front of witnesses and the value of the stolen goods must be paid back. This is called the wergild.
Trygvi

For the last two make up your own Viking name, crime and punishment. Use the video clip, sheet and do your own research to help.