Monday	More letters – Capital letters P, Q, R	Science Draw a picture of a scientist. Describe your scientist to an adult. Look at the information slide about STEM and women's involvement. Think about your drawing and if it shows all of the different types of scientist there could be. Watch the video of Hannah Stitfall presenting Earth Unplugged. https://youtu.be/CbX71LKQQB8 Do you think she is a scientist? What kind of scientist could she be? (Note to parents: Hannah Stitfall is a zoologist – a scientist who studies animals and how they behave). Can you be a Zoologist too? Look at the pictures of different animals. Present information about each of them to an adult, in the way Hannah Stitfall does? Remember to tell them what type of animal it is (eg. bird /mammal /amphibian /reptile /fish) and some of their features. Does it eat meat or plants, or both? What do you think makes it special? I would love to see some of your videos showcasing your presenting skills. Email me at: year1.montalbo@durhamlearning.net	Complete the circuit training session.

Tuesday	More letters – Capital letters S, T, U	DT Today is international Women in Engineering Day. Look at the information about Fei Fei Li (DT – Fei Fei Li) Design some Artificial Intelligence (a robot). Explain what it is, what it does and why it is needed. Remember to label your picture. Think about something that you find hard to do yourself that a robot might be able to do easier such as tidying a room (like your bedroom), tie your shoe laces or even walk the dog.	Just Dance
Wednesday	More letters – Capital letters V, W, X	PHSE The gratitude tree. During this time it has been easy to think about all of the people and things we are missing out on. But we have lots to be grateful and thankful for too; our own health, our homes, the food on our plates, technology that has allowed us to keep in touch with people and keep learning. Make a list of things you are grateful/thankful for. Draw a tree and make each of the things you are grateful for its branches and leaves.	Choose a Cosmic Yoga video to follow.
Thursday	More letters – Capital letters Y, Z	RE Review – What is the Tripitaka? Watch the video telling the story of Siddhartha and The Swan. https://youtu.be/J-Uwll0Vvel Draw a cartoon strip that shows the story of Siddhartha and the Swan. Write a sentence about each picture. Challenge: Can you explain the message of the story to an adult?	Just Dance
Friday	More letters – Capital letters B, D, R	Art Watch the video tutorial for weaving. https://youtu.be/veI73RtKCKt Create your own weave. If you don't have different coloured paper could you make it by colouring in the paper before starting? Could you use something else such as newspaper or magazine pages? I would love to see some of your creations. Photos can be sent to year1.montalbo@durhamlearning.net	Complete the circuit training session.
