

Measuring Length

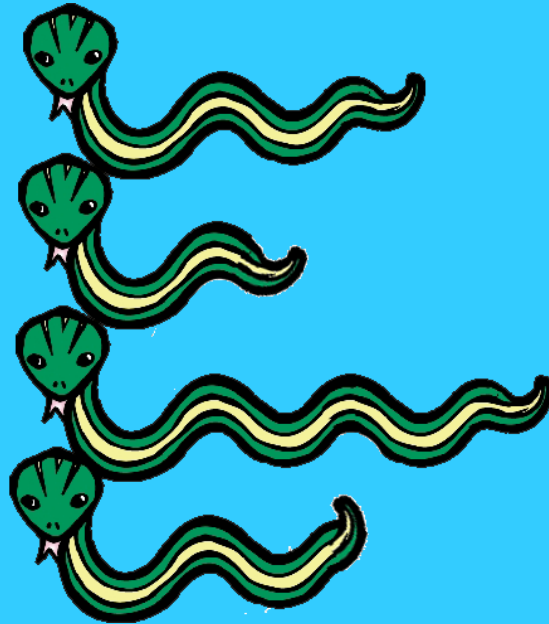

When we measure length we measure how long something is.

You can measure the length of ANYTHING!

When we are describing length we use the words 'short' and 'long'.

Can you think of something that is short?

When we measure length we usually go from side to side.

Can you think of something that is long?

